

LISKEARD ARTS SOCIETY

British Tailoring - 200 years at the top

An Illustrated Talk by Kate Strasdin

Tuesday 12th November 2024

Savile Row has been the epitome of British tailored style for almost two hundred years. This talk takes a look at the history of tailoring in Britain, looking at the art and objects that demonstrate its excellence.

Talks are held in The Public Hall, West Street, Liskeard PL14 6BW at 7.30 p.m.

Refreshments served from 7.00 pm

Non-members (£8) are always welcome.

www.liskeardartsociety.org.uk