Jim Carey and the Saboteurs present

Riots & Lobsters

An evening of the music, songs and whirling words of Nick Darke and Jim Carey

Join us for an enthralling evening of music first created for plays, written by Nick Darke and toured nationally by Kneehigh in the 1990s; including Ting Tang Mine, The Bogus, The King of Prussia and The Riot.

The music has been re-visited, re-imagined and arranged by the original composer Jim Carey and played by his 8-piece band, The Saboteurs.

We'll travel on a musically-diverse, story-rich journey from America to Cornwall, telling tales of riots and lobsters, fishermen and miners, corrupt officials and power-driven politicians, pioneers and saboteurs.

These diverse and poignant songs easily cross stylistic boundaries, sometimes folk songs, sometimes ska or swing, lyrical laments and ballads.

All tell the stories and bring to life the worlds created by Darke & Carey.
