

Explore around Liskeard

The World Heritage mining area on nearby Bodmin Moor can be reached by cycle along the Caradon Trail or by public transport or car.

An Ancient Land of Legends

Discover Trethevy Quoit, a superb Neolithic burial chamber; look out for the "Long Tom" standing stone, and at the ancient Hurlers stone circles steep yourself in the legend of men turned to stone for playing the game of Hurling on a Sunday!

Natural Wonders and Mineral Wealth

Take a walk to the amazing Cheesewring, a rock formation on the edge of a quarry from where granite was sent around the world. Search out the remains of the old Liskeard & Caradon railway line, which carried stone and copper ore down to Moorswater and on to Looe.

Intriguing Industrial History

Find out more about our rich industrial past at Minions Visitor Centre located in a Cornish engine house; download the fascinating apps from CHAH (Caradon Hill Area Heritage Project); or go online to www.caradonhill.org.uk.
